

Charting the Future of

BIOSOLIDS MANAGEMENT

October 17, 2014

Location:

Lee County Emergency
Management Center
2675 Ortiz Avenue
Fort Myers, Florida 33905

FWEA Member Cost:

$85 | $125 After 10/1/14

Non-Member Cost:

$135 | $175 After 10/10/14

Not a Member?

You may join during the registration process and save.

Sponsorships Available:

Gold Level $250 Silver Level $150

Thank you to our Current Sponsors:

Gold Sponsors

- Reiss Engineering, Inc.
- Eco Sciences LLC
- Green Technologies, LLC
- Synagro Technologies, Inc.

Silver Sponsors

- Gerber Pumps International, Inc.

8:00 AM – 8:45 AM

Registration

Opening Remarks

Christian Collins (FWEA Biosolids Committee Chair)

FWEA Update

Kart Vaith, FWEA President

9:00 AM – 9:45 AM

The Future of Biosolids Management – a WEF Perspective

James Welp (Residuals and Biosolids Committee Chair, WEF)

9:45 AM – 10:30 AM

An Overview of Biosolids from a National Perspective

Lisa McFadden (Senior Program Manager, Water Science & Engineering Center, WEF)

10:30 AM – 10:45 AM

Break

10:45 AM – 11:30 AM

Biosolids Processing, Land Application, and Public Acceptance in Lee County, FL

Keith Howard (Lee County Waste Deputy Director)

11:30 AM – 12:15 PM

Energy Optimization and Recovery in Biosolids
Treatment: A Case Study, Orlando, FL

Ted McKim (Reedy Creek, Harvest Power Facility)

12:15 PM – 1:15 PM

Lunch

1:15 PM – 2:00 PM

The Value of Biosolids in Florida

Amir Varshovi (Green Technologies President)

2:00 PM – 2:15 PM

Break

2:15 PM – 3:00 PM

Chapter 62-640 F.A.C. Update

Maurice Barker (Biosolids Coordinator, Florida Department of Environmental Protection)

3:00 PM – 3:45 PM

Biosolids Regulated as a Fertilizer,
“How does that work?”

Bill Cox (Environmental Manager, Fertilizer Section (FDACS))