

2021 FWEA WASTEWATER PROCESS SEMINAR CALL FOR SPEAKERS

November 2, 2021 | Tuesday | 8:00 am - 3:30 pm

Calling on all young professionals, operators, consultants, utilities, contractors, and vendors to submit abstracts for the 2021 FWEA Wastewater Seminar.

KEY NOTE SPEAKER: Megan Ross, PE, ENV SP, Director of Utilities, Pinellas County

DESIRED PRESENTATION TOPICS:

- Responding to Changes/Loads at WWTP's
- SSO's and Wet Weather Management
- Energy/Digestion to Renewables
- Resiliency in WWTP's
- Artificial Intelligence in WWTP's
- Innovative Treatment Technologies
- Wastewater Surveillance (Covid and Beyond)
- A Day in the Life of a Wastewater Operator
- Are MBR's the Future?
- Responding to Changes in Regulations
- Emerging Technologies and Trends in Wastewater
- Is Retrofit Cheaper?
- Utility of the Future (Sustainability, Climate Change, and the Future Operator)
- The Changing Landscape of BMAPS
- Septic-to-Sewer Projects

EpiCenter
St. Pete College
13805 58th St N,
Clearwater, FL 33760

Please submit a brief abstract, title, and speaker name to Caleb Laird at CDM Smith at LairdCR@cdmsmith.com, 904.527.6712. Deadline June 30th. See you soon!